> No one who denies the Son has the Father; whoever acknowledges the Son has the Father also.
> — 1 John 2:23

Book: New Testament / 1 John
Topics: acknowledging, confession, Father, Jesus

Interpretation:
1 John 2:23 tells us about the importance of confessing the Son in order to have a relationship with the Father. When we deny Jesus as the Son of God, we forsake the path of salvation and eternal life.

Denying the Son is denying the Father

This verse reminds us that denying the Son also means denying the Father. That is, we cannot have a relationship with God unless we accept Jesus as our Savior. Jesus' death and resurrection are the keys to our salvation. Confessing the Son means accepting His redemptive work and acknowledging that He is the way, the truth, and the life.

How can we confess the Son?

Confessing the Son involves accepting His redemptive work and following His teachings. We must repent of our sins and trust Jesus as our Savior. We must also live according to God's commandments, love our neighbors, and share the message of salvation with others.

_____

Attention! This is one of the possible interpretations based on the comments of famous theologians, which may differ from each other. If the interpretation is taken from other languages, then there may be a distortion of meaning when translating the language. Matthew 7:7-8

> If anyone acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God lives in them and they in God.
> — 1 John 4:15

Book: New Testament / 1 John

Topics: acknowledging, Jesus, life

Interpretation:
This verse teaches us the importance of believing in Jesus as the Son of God. It is essential to confess our faith in Him and His divinity, which allows us to remain in God and God to remain in us.

Jesus is much more than just a man. He is the second person of the Trinity, which means God in human form. He is the way, the truth, and the life, and no one can approach God except through Him. Therefore, confessing our faith in Jesus as the Son of God is vital to our salvation.

Moreover, confessing our faith also allows us to receive the Holy Spirit, who guides and strengthens us in our daily lives. This gives us the power to live a life that glorifies God in everything we do.

The blessing of having the presence of God Himself is the privilege of all who acknowledge that Jesus is the Son of God. Again, this is not a mere intellectual confession, but an acknowledgment of one's allegiance to the Lord Jesus Christ. There is no closer relationship than man's being in God, and God in him.

It is difficult for us to visualize such a relationship, but we could compare it to a poker in a fire, a sponge in water, or a balloon in the air. In each case, the object is in the environment, and the environment is in the object.

_____

Attention! This is one of the possible interpretations based on the comments of famous theologians, which may differ from each other. If the interpretation is taken from other languages, then there may be a distortion of meaning when translating the language. Matthew 7:7-8

> This is how you can recognize the Spirit of God: Every spirit that acknowledges that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, but every spirit that does not acknowledge Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you have heard is coming and even now is already in the world.
>
> — 1 John 4:2-3

Book: New Testament / 1 John
Topics: acknowledging, devil, Jesus, Spirit

Interpretation:

1 John 4:2-3 is a Bible verses that tells us about the importance of discerning spirits and gives us a very clear picture of how to do it. This is an important point because these verses are calling us to do something: know the Spirit of God.

And this is important because for Christians, our relationship with God is central to our lives. So, knowing the Spirit of God helps us have a deeper and more meaningful relationship with our Creator.

What does it mean to confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh?

In simple terms, it means that we believe that Jesus Christ is God who became man. That is, we believe that the Son of God became flesh and dwelt among us, as described in John 1:14.

Who are the Antichrists?

The Apostle John warns in his letters about a number of people known as "Antichrists." These are those who deny that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and the Savior of the world, in other words, those who oppose the redemptive work of the Lord.

1 John 4:2-3 emphasizes the importance of confessing that Jesus Christ came in the flesh and was in our world. This is a crucial confession for all Christians, because those who do not make it are under the power of the spirit of antichrist.

The spirit of antichrist

The spirit of antichrist is one who opposes God. This supernatural force seeks to replace the divine plan with a lie, an illusion devoid of eternal life. It is characteristic of being the author of lies, thus it tries to distance us from the true faith and the truth revealed by God.

1 John 4:3 emphasizes that every "spirit that does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God." This phrase may seem somewhat cryptic, but its meaning is clear: those who do not recognize the humanity and divinity of the Lord Jesus are under the power of the spirit of antichrist.

_____

Attention! This is one of the possible interpretations based on the comments of famous theologians, which may differ from each other. If the interpretation is taken from other languages, then there may be a distortion of meaning when translating the language. Matthew 7:7-8

> Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called when you made your good confession in the presence of many witnesses.

> — 1 Timothy 6:12

Book: New Testament / 1 Timothy
Topics: acknowledging, confession, Eternal life, faith, overcoming

Interpretation:
This verse from 1 Timothy tells us about the importance of fighting for our faith. Faith is a gift from God that we must protect, nurture, and develop throughout our lives.

What does it mean to “fight the good fight of faith”?

The word “fight” suggests that we are in a state of struggle, a spiritual fight. This could be a fight against temptation, sin, confusion, or adverse circumstances that could cause us to doubt our faith. “A good fight” means that the fight is not in vain, that we are fighting for something valuable, something worthwhile. We are not fighting alone, but God is on our side.

What does it mean to “lay hold on to eternal life”?

Eternal life is a gift from God offered to us through Jesus Christ. As we lay hold of it, we firmly grasp the promise of eternal life in Christ and strive to live according to His teachings. It is not enough to simply believe in eternal life; we must change our lives to live according to God's will.

_____

Attention! This is one of the possible interpretations based on the comments of famous theologians, which may differ from each other. If the interpretation is taken from other languages, then there may be a distortion of meaning when translating the language. Matthew 7:7-8

> Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful.
> — Hebrews 10:23

Book: New Testament / Hebrews
Topics: acknowledging, faithfulness, hope, promises, reliability

Interpretation:
In this Bible verse, the writer of Hebrews encourages us to remain steadfast in our confession of hope. This phrase is important because it reminds us of the importance of maintaining our faith in God without doubt or wavering.

In this sense, the word “hope” refers to the trust we have in God and His promises. So when the writer refers to “hope we profess,” he is referring to publicly affirming our faith in God and His power to fulfill His promises.

Standing firm

Maintaining steadfast faith can be difficult during difficult times when it seems like all is lost and there is no solution to our problems. But as the writer of this Bible verse says, we must remain steadfast in our trust in God.

One way to do this is to remember all the times God has kept His promises in our lives. It is also important to read the scriptures and connect with other Christians who can encourage us in our faith.

God's faithfulness

The writer of Hebrews also mentions that God is faithful to His promises. This means that we can be confident that God will fulfill everything He has promised in His Word.

In our daily lives, we must constantly remember this truth to remain steadfast in our faith. God will never leave us and will always be there for us, even in the most difficult times.

_____

Attention! This is one of the possible interpretations based on the comments of famous theologians, which may differ from each other. If the interpretation is taken from other languages, then there may be a distortion of meaning when translating the language. Matthew 7:7-8

> I say to myself, “The Lord is my portion; therefore I will wait for him.”
> — Lamentations 3:24

Book: Old Testament / Lamentations
Topics: acknowledging, hope, materialism

Interpretation:
Lamentations 3:24 is a declaration of hope in God and His providence for those who trust in Him. Often in our lives we face difficult situations that can make us feel hopeless, cast into darkness, without any help or hope. However, this verse reminds us that in the midst of our struggles, God is our portion, and we are to place our hope in Him.

It is very important to understand that our hope is not to be placed in the circumstances around us, nor in our personal abilities or resources, but in God Himself. He is our portion, the only thing we truly need to find peace and contentment in the midst of any adversity.

_____

Attention! This is one of the possible interpretations based on the comments of famous theologians, which may differ from each other. If the interpretation is taken from other languages, then there may be a distortion of meaning when translating the language. Matthew 7:7-8

> And a voice from heaven said, “This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased.”
> — Matthew 3:17

Book: New Testament / Matthew
Topics: acknowledging, God, Holy Spirit, Jesus

Interpretation:
Matthew 3:17 presents the scene of Jesus’ baptism by John the Baptist in the waters of the Jordan River. This event is significant in the life of Jesus because it highlights His commitment to God and the beginning of His earthly ministry. However, verse 17 further emphasizes the importance of this event by telling of a voice heard from heaven identifying Jesus as the Son of God and expressing His satisfaction with Him.

The voice from heaven is one of the most interesting aspects of this Bible verse. It could be interpreted as evidence that God recognizes Jesus as His Son and accepts Him for His ministry on earth. The voice expresses divine acceptance and recognition that makes it clear that Jesus is a special person. At this point, Jesus receives confirmation from the Father confirming His decision to be baptized by John.

The title “Son of God” bestowed upon Jesus by the voice from heaven can be understood in several ways. First, it sheds light on the nature of Jesus and His unique relationship with God. Jesus is not considered the son of God in a physical or biological sense, but rather by virtue of His divinity and special relationship with the Father.

Secondly, the title emphasizes Jesus' mission on earth to do God's work. At the same time, His divine nature is perfectly suited to this task. The phrase "with him I am well pleased" shows the pride and satisfaction God feels in choosing Jesus to preach His message.

At this holy moment, all three Persons of the Trinity were revealed. The beloved Son was there. The Holy Spirit was there in the form of a dove. The Father's voice, pronouncing a blessing upon Jesus, was heard from heaven.

_____

Attention! This is one of the possible interpretations based on the comments of famous theologians, which may differ from each other. If the interpretation is taken from other languages, then there may be a distortion of meaning when translating the language. Matthew 7:7-8

> And every tongue acknowledge that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
>
> — Philippians 2:11

Book: New Testament / Philippians
Topics: acknowledging, God, obedience

Interpretation:
Philippians was written in 60 AD by the Apostle Paul while he was in prison in Rome. In his letter, he encourages Christians to remain steadfast in their faith and to remain united in love and spirit in the midst of hardships and adversity.

Philippians 2:11 is in the context of a passage about the humility of Christ and how He humbled Himself to death on the cross and then God exalted Him and gave Him the name that is above every name.

Meaning of the Verse

Philippians 2:11 lays out the central doctrine of Christianity. In this verse, Paul confesses Jesus Christ as Lord, which means that He is the ruler of all and has absolute authority over everything in heaven and on earth.

Paul uses the word "Lord" in reference to Jesus because it is a translation of the Greek term "kyrios," which means "owner" or "master." By proclaiming Jesus Christ as Lord, Paul emphasizes the deity of Christ and His supremacy over all creation, including humans.

_____

Attention! This is one of the possible interpretations based on the comments of famous theologians, which may differ from each other. If the interpretation is taken from other languages, then there may be a distortion of meaning when translating the language. Matthew 7:7-8

> Who is he, this King of glory? The Lord Almighty— he is the King of glory.

> — Psalm 24:10

Book: Old Testament / Psalms
Topics: acknowledging, Kingdom, worship

Interpretation:
Psalm 24:10 extols God's power and majesty. The psalmist asks, "Who is this King of glory?" and answers, "The Lord of hosts! He is the King of glory!" thereby affirming God's divinity and His sovereignty over all things. This phrase has been used for centuries in worship and praise of God, and it remains a powerful reminder of who He is and of our humble position before Him.

The nature of the Creator

The question, "Who is this King of glory?" prompts us to reflect on the nature of God and His kingship. He is the creator and preserver of all things, and His power and majesty are limitless. Recognizing this, we naturally feel awe and admiration for Him.

In modern culture, we often tend to downplay God and His importance in our lives. But remembering that He is the King of glory, that His presence and power are omnipresent and omniscient, can help us see things anew and recognize our dependence on Him. By submitting to His majesty and might, we humble ourselves and allow Him to shape us.

New Testament intersection

Furthermore, Psalm 24:10 is especially relevant when we reflect on the nature of Jesus Christ as the King of glory. In the New Testament, the answer to the question, "Who is this King of glory?" can be found in Ephesians 5:5: "For of this you can be sure: No immoral, impure or greedy person—such a person is an idolater—has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God." Here, the Apostle Paul affirms that Christ is the King of God, and that those who have an inheritance in His kingdom must live holy and pure lives.

_____
Attention! This is one of the possible interpretations based on the comments of famous theologians, which may differ from each other. If the interpretation is taken from other languages, then there may be a distortion of meaning when translating the language. Matthew 7:7-8

> Then I acknowledged my sin to you and did not cover up my iniquity. I said, “I will confess my transgressions to the Lord.” And you forgave the guilt of my > sin.

> — Psalm 32:5

Book: Old Testament / Psalms
Topics: acknowledging, confession, Forgiveness, sin

Interpretation:
Psalm 32:5 is one of the most important verses in the Bible because it speaks of the importance of confessing our sins to God. The main idea of ??this verse is that if we confess our sins, God will forgive us. This means that no matter what we've done, we can always turn to God and ask for His forgiveness.

The importance of confessing your sins to God

Confessing our sins to God is essential for maintaining a good relationship with Him. When we sincerely repent and ask for forgiveness, God not only forgives us but also helps us release the guilt and burden we feel because of sin. Therefore, by confessing, we open our hearts to God's grace and love and give ourselves the opportunity to grow spiritually.

_____

Attention! This is one of the possible interpretations based on the comments of famous theologians, which may differ from each other. If the interpretation is taken from other languages, then there may be a distortion of meaning when translating the language. Matthew 7:7-8

> The one who is victorious will, like them, be dressed in white. I will never blot out the name of that person from the book of life, but will acknowledge that name before my Father and his angels.
> — Revelation 3:5

Book: New Testament / Revelation
Topics: acknowledging, Angels, heaven, life, overcoming, promises

Interpretation:
The Book of Revelation is known as one of the most mystical and terrifying books in the New Testament of the Bible. But if we delve deeper into it, we can find a message of hope and love for believers. One such message is found in Revelation 3:5, where Jesus promises not to blot out the names of the overcomers from the book of life.

The white garments of the overcomer

The beginning of Revelation 3:5 refers to the white garment that the “overcomer” will receive in eternal life. This garment symbolizes the purity and holiness that a Christian has achieved by persevering in his faith and overcoming trials and temptations during his life on earth.

While this garment refers to life in heaven, we can also apply it to our daily lives on earth. We must remember that as Christians, we are called to live a life of holiness and purity. It is easy to give in to temptation, but with the help of the Holy Spirit and devotion to God, we can overcome and receive the white garment of the overcomer.

Book of Life

The Book of Life is mentioned several times in the Bible, and in this verse it refers to the heavenly book that contains the names of those who are saved and who will have access to God’s eternal kingdom in heaven. To have a name erased from the Book of Life means that that person has lost their eternal salvation.

Assurance of eternal salvation is one of the most important themes in the life of a Christian. Often, the fear of losing salvation causes doubts and fears in the life of a believer. But the promise in this verse assures us that if we persevere and overcome in our life on earth, our name will remain in the Book of Life and we will have access to heaven.

Confession to the Father and His angels

In this verse, Jesus promises to confess us before His Heavenly Father and His angels if we endure in our faith and remain pure and holy. Confessing a believer’s name to the Father is a sign of the believer’s special relationship with God.

The truth is that our relationship with God is strengthened as we struggle with temptation in our daily lives. And while the promise of a name conference may seem small, it is a powerful reminder that God knows us personally and values ??our faithfulness in our daily lives.

_____

Attention! This is one of the possible interpretations based on the comments of famous theologians, which may differ from each other. If the interpretation is taken from other languages, then there may be a distortion of meaning when translating the language. Matthew 7:7-8

> For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you profess your faith and are saved.

> — Romans 10:10

Book: New Testament / Romans
Topics: acknowledging, confession, faith, Salvation, speaking

Interpretation:
This verse is crucial to understanding the connection between what we believe internally and what we express externally. Romans 10:10 talks about justice and salvation, and how these two realities relate to our confession of faith.

Believe with your heart to obtain justice

The first thing Paul emphasizes in this verse is the importance of believing in the heart. In the Bible, the heart does not refer only to a physical organ, but is a metaphor for our spirituality, our inner world. Paul tells us that it is through the faith within us that we attain righteousness. What does this mean?

The justice in question here is not social justice, but divine justice. In other words, believing with your heart means recognizing that you are a sinner and in need of God's salvation. It is believing that Jesus died on the cross for our sins and that through His sacrifice we can obtain the justice that God demands.

Confess with your mouth to be saved

The second aspect that this verse emphasizes is the importance of confessing with your mouth. Confession here does not mean admitting our sins to other people, but rather publicly confessing our faith in Jesus Christ. It means openly speaking about our faith in the Lord and declaring our devotion to Him.

This public confession is an important step in the life of a Christian because we join with other followers of Jesus and realize that we are part of a community of believers. In addition, public confession also helps us to strengthen our faith and become witnesses of God's love through our words.

———

Attention! This is one of the possible interpretations based on the comments of famous theologians, which may differ from each other. If the interpretation is taken from other languages, then there may be a distortion of meaning when translating the language. Matthew 7:7-8

> If you declare with your mouth, “Jesus is Lord,” and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.
> — Romans 10:9

Book: New Testament / Romans
Topics: acknowledging, confession, faith, Jesus, speaking

Interpretation:
Romans 10:9 is one of the most important and foundational verses in Christian teaching because it establishes that the only way to attain salvation is to confess faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and believe in His resurrection.

Confession of faith

The verse begins with the phrase, “If you declare with your mouth, “Jesus is Lord”.” The word “declare” implies a public declaration of our faith. That is, it is not enough to believe with all our hearts that Jesus exists; we must also proclaim it publicly.

Confession is not only an expression of our faith, but also an act of submission and obedience to God. In Luke 12:8, Jesus said, “I tell you, whoever publicly acknowledges me before others, the Son of Man will also acknowledge before the angels of God.” In other words, by confessing our faith in Jesus, we also ensure that He will publicly recognize us before the angels of God.

Belief in the resurrection

The second part of the verse says, “and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead.” The word “believe” implies a deep personal conviction. That is, it is not enough to simply accept the idea of ??the resurrection, but we must believe it with all our being.

The resurrection is the most important event in the history of Christianity, for it is the irrefutable proof that Jesus was the Son of God. By believing in the resurrection, we affirm our faith in the divine sovereignty and victory of Christ over sin and death.

The promise of salvation

The verse ends with the promise, “you will be saved.” This phrase summarizes the entire meaning of the verse, for it establishes that confession and faith are the most important requirements for obtaining salvation.

Salvation is the most valuable gift we can receive, for it is liberation from the bondage of sin. Once saved, we secure for ourselves eternal life in the Kingdom of God, where we will enjoy complete peace and happiness.

_____

Attention! This is one of the possible interpretations based on the comments of famous theologians, which may differ from each other. If the interpretation is taken from other languages, then there may be a distortion of meaning when translating the language. Matthew 7:7-8

> It is written: ‘As surely as I live,’ says the Lord, ‘every knee will bow before me; every tongue will acknowledge God.’
>
> — Romans 14:11

Book: New Testament / Romans
Topics: acknowledging, humility, praise, worship

Interpretation:
In Romans 14:11, Paul quotes the Old Testament prophecy of Isaiah 45:23, where the prophet declares that at the Last Judgment every knee will bow before God and every tongue will confess that He is Lord.

This verse is an expression of God's sovereignty as the Creator and Judge of the world. It is a reminder that at some point in human history, every person will honor God and acknowledge His power and majesty.

_____

Attention! This is one of the possible interpretations based on the comments of famous theologians, which may differ from each other. If the interpretation is taken from other languages, then there may be a distortion of meaning when translating the language. Matthew 7:7-8
